Where applicable, fees will be refunded in accordance with Student Aid BC (SABC) or other provincial loan regulations. Please refer to the College Student Enrolment Contract.

Considerations

- Western Community College (the College) will refund fees charged for tuition and course materials paid for but not received if the student provides a notice of withdrawal to the College or the College provides a notice of dismissal to the student. Refunds are calculated on the tuition fee of the program. If total fees have not yet been collected, the college is not responsible for refunding more than what has been collected to date and the relevant student may be required to make up for any money due under the contract.
- Students are informed of the refund policy during the admission process.
- Application, administration and assessment fees are non-refundable.
- In the event a student does withdraw or is dismissed from a program, the College is required to report this to the appropriate student assistance office and required to refund tuition fees in accordance with the stated refund policy.
- Refunds required under this policy will be paid to the student, or a person who paid the tuition or fees on behalf of the student, within 30 days of the date the College:
 - Receives a student's notice of withdrawal; or
 - Provides a notice of dismissal to the student.
